

SCORES OF PEOPLE BURNED IN HOTEL FIRE. BRILLIANT SCENE AT THE VATICAN THIS MORNING.

REBELS POPE'S JUBILEE IS A NEGRO WIN LARGE AFFAIR.

Defeat the Presidential Forces in Honduras.

PANAMA, Feb. 20.—The revolutionary movement in Honduras is increasing. At Cholotea, Macome, Pespire, Yucaran, Dauli and Gracias, outbreaks have occurred in favor of President-elect Bonilla. General Emilio Herrera, chief of the Presidential forces, has been defeated at Oloncho. General Sierra, President of Honduras, has since then assumed supreme command of the army.

General Fidel Balmes, with the assistance furnished by General Regalado, President of Salvador, has invaded Honduras by way of Ocotepec with 500 men and will support General Bonilla.

Fifteen Congressmen of Honduras recently escaped from Tegucigalpa and fled to Salvador, whence they have left to join General Bonilla at Amapala Island, his headquarters.

TOOK POISON IN CAKE.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 20.—While mentally deranged over an illness, Joseph Sarramento, a Portuguese farmer, over 80 years of age, put strychnine in a piece of cake last night, and after eating the food, proclaimed to those around him what he had done and implored them to let him die. His wish was granted, for, despite the efforts of Dr. Torney, who was hastily summoned, the aged man passed away soon after taking the poisoned morsel.

Sarramento lives on his farm near this place. He was a sufferer from heart trouble, and it was the brooding over his disease that caused him to lose possession of his mind and take his life in such a dramatic manner.

It was shortly before going to bed that the deceased went to the pantry in his home and sought a piece of cake in which to place the poison. Then coming out before his family, he swallowed the food, and then told of what the cake contained.

Deceased had lived in this vicinity about thirty-five years. He leaves two grown sons, one of whom is a blacksmith and the other a chicken raiser.

The remains have been removed to the branch morgue at this place. The inquest will be held Sunday morning.

POPE LEO

ROME, Feb. 20.—"It seems impossible that it is twenty-five years since I have been there," was Pope Leo's exclamation as he looked from a window of his apartments this morning into the sunlit plaza of St. Peter's. This was the Pontiff's only reference to his long term of self-imposed imprisonment in the Vatican, during which he has never gone beyond the palace grounds and St. Peter's, which is considered to be part of the Vatican.

"What a glorious morning for the jubilee of my Pontificate," the Pope added, as

JUMPED FOR THEIR LIVES.

Two Burned and Scores of People Injured in a Fire at Cedar Rapids.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Feb. 20.—Ten lives, according to the best information obtainable under the circumstances, were lost in a fire which this morning destroyed the Clifton Hotel in this city. The fire started at 2:30 o'clock and at 10 o'clock the smoldering debris furnished so fierce a heat that search for bodies was impossible. The list of the dead may prove larger than the number given out, but it is hoped that the information, which accounts for all but this number, is correct.

Two persons were fatally injured and a two score or more injured more or less severely, mostly by jumping from windows. The work of learning the names of the dead is rendered difficult by the loss of the hotel register, which was burned.

The hotel, a three-story brick veneer structure, is said to have been a veritable fire-trap. The flames started in a pile of rubbish in the basement, presumably ignited by defective electric light wires. The night clerk was on the third floor when the cry of fire, raised by a bellboy startled him. He took up the cry and in an instant the hallways were chocked with frightened guests. A rush was made for the stairways. It was then that the crowd already collected in the street, heard heartrending cries of anguish and desperation, for the fire, feeding rapidly and ravenously on the under-like material of the lower floor, had completely cut off escape. There followed a stampede for the windows, the only means of exit left. The street below was now filled and the crowd was no less frantic than the despairing ones in the fast-burning building.

"It was like a Dore picture of the inferno sprung to life," said one spectator, describing the scene.

The flames, looking blood red from reflection against the snow, lit up the pale, drawn faces of the people in the windows with a glow that was unearthly.

The victims were literally driven by the flames to jump. Nearly every one of them lingered to the last moment, urged by the people below to wait as long as possible in the hope of assistance. Then a cry would tell that the fire had reached them or the smoke had made it impossible to breathe, and one after another leaped, some to the street, and some,
more fortunate, to the roofs of buildings adjoining. In a short space of time the street was filled with men and women, bruised, battered, broken limbed and halfcrazed. All were in their night garments.
In an hour St. Luke's Hospital contained fifteen injured, while many more, chiefly those who had escaped with comparatively slight hurts, were being cared for in buildings near the scene of the tragedy. Some who jumped owe their lives to the fact that their falls were broken by the telegraph wires, which interposed in their downward flight. A number of the guests who were able to converse calmly following their escape declared that they had stumbled over prostrate bodies as they rushed to the windows.
The flames literally were chasing them and the smoke made it almost impossible to breathe.

The proprietor of the hotel placed his estimate of the number of people in the building at between seventy and eighty.
Many of them were delegates to the State convention of the I. M. C. A., which began here yesterday.

Those who were first to escape, where

NEGRO SHOT TO DEATH.

Defied Police and Had to Be Smoked Out.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 20.—After holding half a hundred blue coats at bay for several hours, during which a number of shots were exchanged, Lafayette Sims, a desperate negro,
was killed by the police early today in a negro boarding house, situated on South Rampart street. The room in which he was besieged had to be set on fire and the Fire Department called out before Sims could be driven from his post. As he attempted to escape, still carrying his gun, he was shot down.

The origin of the trouble was trivial.
Sims occupied a room in the boarding house, in which there were seven beds.
On retiring last night he locked the door and when the landlord early this morning asked him to open it so that another lodger might be admitted, Sims refused. Then the landlord sent for the police. Efforts to persuade Sims to open the door failed and a hole was smashed in it. Through the aperture, Sims shot a pistol out of one hand and a lantern out of the other of Officer Winstein, who tried to enter. Thereupon additional police were sent for and the house surrounded.

After the additional police had arrived the landlord and an officer again went to the room and pleaded with Sims to come and surrender.

"No, I won't," he answered with an oath. "I'll shot if you don't go away. I am not going to leave here. They'll burn me in oil. They'll fry me."

Sims had piled some of the furniture in the room against the door and was prepared to fight for his life.
As the landlord and the officer retreated the desperado fired at them, without doing any damage. All efforts to induce the prisoner to surrender having proved abortive, Superintendent of Police Journee decided that there was nothing to be done but to smoke the negro out. An alarm was turned in and a portion of the Fire Department brought to the scene.

A quantity of cotton, oil and sulphur was sent for, the cotton rolled into balls and saturated with oil, a match applied and the blazing substance hurled into the room, every avenue of escape being guarded. The furniture in the room caught quickly, filling the place with smoke and flame. Sims hung on until he was nearly suffocated and then made a break to escape. As he appeared at the door Patrolman Fred Smith fired at him. The negro staggered, mortally wounded. Instantly other policemen fired on him. He had scarcely fallen to the floor when he was dead.
The firemen ran a lead of hose into the building and extinguished the flames, and the body was dragged out and driven through a lane of excited negroes to the police station.

Examination of the room following the tragedy showed that Sims had gotten possession of Officer Winstein's revolver after shooting it from his hand.

BODY WAS FROZEN.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 20.—The dead body of A. W. Holbein, aged 56, manager of a feed store, was found in a vacant lot at Washington avenue and Twelfth street today, frozen stiff. It is believed that in crossing the lot late last night he was overcome by vertigo and froze to death in his helpless condition.

QUAY TRUE TO HIS PLEDGE.

SENATOR QUAY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—When the Senate met at 11 a. m. today it was still the legislative day of yesterday, a recess having been taken last night until this morning. The proceedings were still behind closed doors.

The Panama canal treaty was immediately laid before the Senate.

Senator Morgan yielded the floor to Senator Burton (Republican), an advocate of the omnibus statehood bill. He spoke especially of the importance of the passage of that measure, only indirectly referring to the treaty. His contention was that while the canal

AFTER A PRINCE

Sensational Charge is Made Against Prince Philip.

VIENNA, Feb. 20.—Sensational charges against Prince Philip of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, who is an Austrian Field Marshal and husband of the Princess Louise of Belgium, were made today in the Reichsrath during the debate on the army bill by Herr Daszynski, the Polish leader.
The latter denounced the Prince as a criminal. Referring to the imprisonment of the former Lieutenant of Hussars, Mattasich, who eloped with the Princess Louise of Coburg several years ago and who was sentenced to four years' imprisonment last December for forgery he asserted, that while in prison, Mattasich drew up a formal accusation charging Prince Philip with forcing the Princess Louise, who was confined in an asylum for the insane near Dresden some time after her elopement, to encourage the advances of the late Baron Hirsch and with compelling her to ask the Baron for money.

PASSED BY THE ASSEMBLY.
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 20.—Assemblyman McMartin's bill, providing for the appointment of three additional Superior Judges for San Francisco was passed by the Assembly today.

The Lower House passed Assemblyman Greer's bill appropriating $50,000 for the purpose of improving the attic of the State Capitol.

Assemblyman W. H. Waste's resolution memorializing California's Senators and Representatives in Congress to secure a reconsideration of the order of the Federal authorities, transferring the Spanish archives from San Francisco to Washington, was adopted. A similar resolution by Senator Knowland was also passed.

SAFES ARE OPENED.
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20.—The three steel safes in the trust investment offices of E.
J. Arnold and Company were opened today by experts, at the direction of Receiver Swartz. Two were found to contain only books and papers and the contents of the third and largest safe have not been revealed.

The legislative investigation committee resumed inquiry today into the methods employed by co-operative concerns.

DENIES HIS WIFE'S CHARGE.

JAMES DORMAN DECLARES HE IS NOT A DRUNKARD OR THAT HE WAS CRUEL.

James Dorman has filed an answer denying the sensational charges of cruelty that are preferred against him by his wife, Jane Dorman, in her complaint for a divorce.

The alleged cruelty complained of by the wife dates back more than thirty years. In 1872, while they were living at Petaluma, Mrs. Dorman alleges her husband threatened to take her life with a knife and would have succeeded in murdering her had she not escaped from the house and sought refuge at the home of a neighbor.

For twenty years, Mrs. Dorman says, she stood her husband's abuse and cruel treatment. Instead of working and assisting in earning money for their household expenses, Mrs. Dorman alleges, her husband would spend his time in idleness and dissipation.

Drink, Mrs. Dorman alleges, was the principal cause of their troubles. She declares that her husband was continually asking her for money to purchase liquor. Unless she acceded to his request, she says, he would threaten and abuse her. She declares that she could obtain relief from her husband's persecution only by fleeing from him.

Mrs. Dorman alleges that for years she has been afraid to go out on the street unattended for fear her husband would meet her and do her injury. At times, she alleges, her husband's demands for money led him to break in the door of her room. Mrs. Dorman alleges that she owns separately property in Petaluma, valued at $800. Her husband claims that it is community property and that it is worth $200. He denies that he is an habitual drunkard, or that he has abused and threatened to kill his wife.

AMUSEMENTS.

The great classic Shakespearean tragedy of "Antony and Cleopatra" will be seen tonight at the Macdonough Theater in the guise of a modern travesty and enhanced by all the brilliancy and magnificence known to the art of spectacularism. The production is of the most extravagant order, and over one hundred and fifty people are required in the principal parts and chorus. Few indeed, if any, attractions of the magnitude of Bothwell Browne's spectacular Extravaganza have ever been on any stage outside of New York City, and even there they are of un-frequent occurrence since the days of Kilrality. In the performance of "Antony and Cleopatra," the most palatial scenes are presented. There is a change of color, grace of motion, a dazzling shower of lighting effects and gorgeous mountings and magnificent costumes, having a variety and splendor in referring to this production, when recently produced in San Francisco the Call of that city declared it was the most "magnificent stage spectacle ever presented at a local theater." The indications are that it will be greeted by large audiences at the five performances announced for this city, and which includes tonight, tomorrow and Sunday evenings, and the matinees on tomorrow and Sunday afternoon. The production is under the personal direction of Mr. Chas. E. Cook, popularly known to the playgoers of this city, when he was manager of the Macdonough Theater.

Anna Held will be seen at the Macdonough next Monday night. She has an excellent show.

LOVER'S LANE. "Lovers' Lane" will be the production next Tuesday and Wednesday. "A MYSTERIOUS MODEL." "A Mysterious Model" is the clever play at the Dewey.

SECOND MARRIAGE WAS NOT HAPPY.

Default was entered today against F. J. Grossheim on account of his failure to answer the divorce action brought by his wife, Mary Grossheim.

Mrs. Grossheim charges her husband with extreme cruelty. They were married a few years ago. Mrs. Grossheim was a widow at the time, having a number of children. For a time they conducted a restaurant in Emeryville, but frequent quarrels finally separated them.

BEQUEATHS ESTATE TO HER FRIEND.

The will of Jean Clara Walters, who died on February 18, was filed for probate today by Mrs. M. T. Shumate, who is to receive the bulk of the estate for the care she gave the testatrix while she was sick and helpless. A daughter of the testatrix, Mrs. Mary A. Fine, is left only $5, while two grandsons, William A. Fine and Dr. Henry Fine, are left $1 each.

From the petition filed it appears that the value of the estate is less than $100. It consists of a promissory note for $50, executed on August 28, 1900, and bearing interest at eight per cent per year, but on which $450 has been paid.

WAS NOT TRIED FOR CUTTING DOWN TREES.

P. A. Hagon was not tried in the Police Court on a charge of malicious mischief preferred by Mary A. Sullivan, who alleged that he had cut down some trees in front of her residence, 423 Sherman avenue, without her consent. The charge against Hagon was dismissed on the motion of Prosecuting Attorney Leach, who stated that Mrs. Sullivan had been offered pay for her destroyed property, and he was convinced that the trees were cut down through a mistake made innocently on the part of Hagon.

WOULD RENEW JUDGMENT. The Bank of Livermore today began suit to renew a judgment obtained against J. D. Smith in 1894 for $37,153, with interest at seven per cent a year.

EDDIE HANLON WILL NOT BE AN ACTOR.

Will Take on McGovern if He Wins From Corbett—Boating—Racing—Baseball and Golf.

If Eddie Hanlon is successful in wrestling the featherweight championship from Young Corbett in San Francisco next Thursday night, he has made up his mind to do one thing and refrain from doing another. For the first he will immediately box Terry McGovern, and the other is that he will not seek fame on the stage. Many other fighters have promised Eddie, and it remains to be seen whether Eddie will be strong enough to resist the allurements of the footlights.

Any one looking at Hanlon in training will agree that he never was cut out for an actor. Eddie is essentially the fighter, with determination written in every line of his face. That same determination has won for him every contest he has engaged in and is what is expected to win for him the championship.

Hanlon's position and methods in the ring defy all the ordinary rules of boxing. Still they consist purely of two primal principles of the art of cuffing, namely attack and defense. But it is in these two essentials that he differs from other fighters. Most knights of pugmism go on attack as wide open as gambling houses in a mining camp. Not so with Hanlon. When he rushes he is as well covered with gloves and arms as an armored battleship. Once within striking distance those arms and gloves begin to lay about with a speed that the eye cannot follow.

Some say that this style of protecting the face with his gloved hands will not help Hanlon. It is put forth with all the authority supposed to be possessed by the old sports of fistiana that Corbett's blows are powerful enough to knock Hanlon out even if they but land on his glove, providing that same glove fetches up against the jaw that it is supposed to protect.

Tim McGrath, by reason of his long association with champions of all sizes, is listened to when he talks of Corbett's hitting powers. Says Tim: "When I saw McGovern, I didn't think there was a man within pounds of his weight in the world could defeat him. When he was finally knocked out I could not understand it. It is plain to me now: Corbett has the punch and that will win for him."

But that region in San Francisco that is often referred to as "south of the slot" says Hanlon never whimpered from the hardest punches middleweights have handed out, and that he never designed a little fellow like Corbett to lay low their "cute" little Eddie.

NOVEL GOLF CONTEST BY LOCAL CLUB.

PLAYERS WILL CONTEST OVER COURSE THAT WILL BE UNKNOWN.

The members of the Oakland Golf Club are to introduce a very novel feature on their links on Adams' Point in the near future. The event is designated a cross-county handicap and will be over thirty-six holes at medal play.

The idea has been brought to the attention of the club by Captain W. P. Johnson, who took the idea from a competition of a like character played on the links at Glenview, N. J.

The exact course to be taken by the players will not be divulged until just previous to the starting of the play. Thus no player can have an advantage over the others by going over the distance previous to the contest.

It is estimated that the course will cover a distance of about 7,000 yards.

ALAMEDA BOATING CLUB COMES OUT.

CHAMPIONSHIP REGATTA WILL NOT BE HELD THIS YEAR ON LAKE MERRITT.

Great interest is being taken in boating affairs this year by the clubs on both sides of the bay and all are making preparations for the opening of the season.

The Alameda Boating Club championship crew has been out several times this week for a spin. The crew at present is made up of the following:

ing: Fred W. Ayers, stroke; John, aft waist; E. B. Thorning, forward waist; George Lewis, bow. The crew is to take a trip on the water next Sunday if the weather permits.

As the Lake Merritt course is not of the regulation length, as is required by the association rules, the championship regatta will not take place on that sheet of water this year. The records made on Lake Merritt will not be accepted by the association.

The continuation of the Alameda county tennis championship tournament is to be commenced tomorrow in the courts of the Coccolillo Club in East Oakland.

The event is one of the most important in the tennis history of this county. A large list of names has been sent and it is expected that before play begins the list will be materially added to.

The winners of the singles will be called upon to play Reuben G. Hunt, the present champion of this county. Percy Lardock is selected by the wise ones to wrest the honors from the champion, and no matter which way it turns the finals are sure to be exciting.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT IN OAKLAND.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF ALAMEDA COUNTY WILL BE DECIDED SOON.

The winners of the doubles will be the champions, as the doubles have not been played heretofore and consequently these are no defenders.

The winners of the singles will be called upon to play Reuben G. Hunt, the present champion of this county. Percy Lardock is selected by the wise ones to wrest the honors from the champion, and no matter which way it turns the finals are sure to be exciting.

NEWS FROM CITY OF ALAMEDA

WILL BE A BIG SUCCESS. SCHOOL CHILDREN NEW CHURCH FOR CELEBRATE. ALAMEDA.

DRESS REHEARSAL OF CANTATA "ESTHER" ENCOURAGES THE MANAGERS.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 20.—The dress rehearsal of the Queen Esther cantata was held Wednesday night in Armory Hall. It was a great success, and all who attended it look forward to tonight and Saturday with great enthusiasm.

Through several months of practice every detail of this concert has been thoroughly mastered. Mr. Becker, who is staging it, is proficient and thorough in his efforts. Especially so is the scene in which Queen Esther appears with her maid in the court of King Ahasuerus to plead for her life and for the lives of her people, the Jews. She here boldly accuses the wicked Haman of conspiring to destroy Mordecai and the rest of the Jews.

Most touching is the parting scene between Haman and Zeresh, his wife, as Haman is sent to the gallows. In this scene Miss Coyne (Zeresh) wins the earnest sympathy of all, making them feel with her anguish and despair as she undergoes.

The decorations of the hall, made by Company G, are very beautiful. There are dozens of United States flags and of Chinese lanterns.

This cantata will be a treat such as Alameda seldom has, and any one missing it will have cause for regrets.

COMMITTEE OF FIFTEEN HAS BEEN APPOINTED.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 20.—C. L. Tilden, chairman of the Municipal Republican Club, has appointed a committee of fifteen citizens, one from each precinct of the city, whose duty it will be to select the names of sixty delegates to a nominating convention. The committee is composed of the following Republicans: William H. M. Baurhite, T. F. Baird, James E. Baker, A. M. Clay, J. N. McNutt, J. N. Young, Dr. G. P. Reynolds, F. W. Van Sicken, C. L. Tisdale, Charles S. Neal, J. J. Seale, George H. Mastick, C. L. Tilden (ex-officio), J. G. Lubben and E. B. Lovejoy. The committee will hold its first meeting tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the club headquarters, 1915 Park street.

JOSEPH FORDERER JR. TAKES AN OAKLAND BRIDE.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 20.—The marriage of Joseph F. Forderer Jr., son of President Forderer of the Alameda Board of Trustees, and Miss Hattie Kingsbury of Oakland, took place last evening at the home of the groom's parents, 1212 Regent street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Bennett, pastor of the First Methodist Church. The couple were attended only by a ring bearer, little Miss Williams of Oakland. After a honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Forderer will return to Alameda, where they will make their home.

ARBOR DAY EXERCISES IN ALAMEDA MEET WITH SUCCESS.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 20.—The Arbor Day exercises that took place today in the schools of Alameda were of an elaborate and interesting nature. Professor Hughes, Superintendent of Public Instruction, assisted by the Civic Section of the Adelphean Club, had arranged the program some time ago and everything was conducted without a hitch.

At each of the schools, beginning at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, the children sang patriotic songs and spoke pieces appropriate to the occasion. It was also arranged that several prominent men deliver a ten-minute talk at each school. The speakers were arranged as follows: Rev. Wesley Haskell of the Unitarian Church, at Haight School; Rev. F. E. Brush of the Presbyterian Church, at the Wilson School; Mr. Forderer, president of the Board of Trustees, at the Porter School; Rev. E. P. Bennett of the Methodist Church, at the Mastick School; Frank Otis at the Everett School, and Rev. L. Potter Hitchcock at the Longfellow School. Representatives of the Civic Section of the Adelphean Club were in attendance at the exercises in each school. At 11 o'clock the pupils of the High School assembled at the new building, where a tree was planted. President Frank Otis of the Board of Education presided at the affair. The entire committee from the Adelphean Club was present. It consisted of the following: Mrs. William Baurhite, chairman; Mrs. Sherrill, Mrs. Toller, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. McGurn and Mrs. Hebard.

The exercises in the Alameda schools today were all that was expected by those in charge. Every one turned out and a feeling of patriotism pervaded everywhere.

PRESBYTERIAN CONGREGATION DECIDES TO CONSTRUCT NEW BUILDING.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 20.—The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church met Wednesday evening in the church parlors to confer with the trustees regarding the project of building a new church on the lot at the corner of Santa Clara and Chestnut streets, which was purchased recently.

D. D. Stark was elected chairman of the meeting. It was reported that $8,000 had been subscribed toward the new church in addition to the amount that had been necessary to purchase the lot. A number of plans were suggested, and some rough estimates on the cost of a suitable building were offered. The plans and figures were introduced simply for the purpose of giving the congregation a comprehensive idea of the undertaking. After considerable discussion the matter was referred to the trustees and the building committee with power to act.

This power is limited to the extent that at least $10,000 must be raised before the work of building a new church is undertaken, and that under no consideration is the congregation to be called upon to shoulder a debt exceeding $6,000. This would make the total cost of the proposed new church $16,000. This, however, is not the limit, if an amount in excess of $10,000 is subscribed, a more costly church will be constructed.

It was decided definitely that the present church parlors would be moved to the new location.

Some members of the congregation suggested that the church be continued and that the Presbyterians of the city have two places of worship. This matter will be acted upon at a future meeting.

The building committee of the church consisted originally of Trustees Brown, Bradley and Barton. To this list have been added the names of D. D. Stark, E. B. Burrell, A. J. Burgner and J. E. Baker.

DELEGATION HOLDS A SHORT CAUCUS.

County Assessor Dalton was asked for his opinion of the proposed amendment. He said that he had no objection to it, but that he had no voice in the matter.

John Bile was fined $25 and costs for placing a rifle cartridge on the trolley track on South Main street. Richard Moreschke was fined $25 and costs for throwing a stone at a trolley car, and Phil Fountain $15 and costs for a similar crime. BERKELEY, Feb. 20.—While leaving his home last night for his office this morning, Clarence H. Turner was taken with heart failure and died almost instantly. Mr. Turner, though he has not been in robust health for some time, was apparently feeling as well as usual this morning. He ate a hearty breakfast and made no complaint of feeling weak or experiencing any pain. He went for his hat and overcoat preparatory to taking the train for Ashby avenue, where he was a partner of C. C. Emelle in the real estate business. Before reaching the door, his heart failed him, and he died before medical aid could be summoned.

The deceased had lived in Berkeley at 229 Dwight way, for ten or twelve years. He was sixty-five years of age, and for the past two years had been too feeble to do much active work. He leaves a widow, Adeline W. Turner, and a son, Wallace, who is about 21 years of age.

BAIR MAKES A SPEECH.

Labor Candidate Talks to People of North Oakland.

The Union Labor party held a large rally in Pezola Hall, Alameda, last night. There was considerable enthusiasm and much interest was taken in the meeting.

Paul Watch called the meeting to order and A. D. Powers acted as chairman.

J. B. Rebell, candidate for Councilman from the First Ward made the first address. He was well received and was followed by Hugh O'Neil.

BAIR SPEAKS.

E. L. Bair candidate for Mayor was well received. He said: "I feel that the time of the common people has come and that the bone and sinew of the working classes are going to be heard from, that the people are going to have their rightful heritage. All over the country today you see the great corporate interests are trembling for the financial kings know the workmen have been reading and thinking."

"As the candidate of the Union Labor party for Mayor I will say that I believe that I am proud of the way the union men are standing behind me and that I believe they will support the ticket to the end. One of the ministers in this city said the other day that the workman is all right but that he is not sufficiently educated and is not broadminded enough to conduct the affairs of government. Have you thought what an insult that man offered to the memory of the martyred Abraham Lincoln, who began life as a rail splitter? Have you thought what a slap such remarks were in the face of General Grant, the tanner? We can do that and we can be applied to Andrew Johnson? History has shown that the greatest men of the nation came from the common people, and I do not think that men of sense will believe such a statement as that made from the pulpit of one of Oakland's churches."

"A relentless fight is now being waged against us, but we are four to one against any combination that can be found, and if we stand together we can win. The water question is the important question to be settled, and the people of this city demand reasonable water rates. I do not believe in entering into competition with the Contra Costa Water Company because that certain amount of money and could even undersell the city for a long period of time. I say that we should buy the plant. That we should get engineers who will fix a just valuation and that we should pay the corporation what we can. "The very best guarantee that the candidates of the Union Labor party can give themselves is to show that they are the party of the young and its entire future before it. Every act will be criticized and the very existence of the party depends on the good behavior of its servants. I ask you to give it a chance and put the entire Union Labor ticket into office."

Other speakers were J. E. McElroy, candidate for City Attorney; Murray Laidlaw, candidate for Treasurer; J. J. Keens, candidate for Assessor; and Richard H. Thomas, candidate for Councilman-at-Large.

The next rally will be held in Cameron Hall, East Oakland, tomorrow night, and at that time the Rev. E. E. Baker, father of the candidate, will answer the attack made by the Rev. E. E. Baker on the Union Labor party.

A GREAT DISCOVERY In Electro-Chemical Science.

ELECTRO-MAGNETINE, a recent discovery of Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., is an Electro-Magnetized and Ammonio-Camphorated Cream Liniment.

POSSESSED OF MARVELOUS PROPERTIES. Electro-Magnetine is believed to be the only preparation yet devised for curative purposes which is free from such peculiar properties that when applied to any part of the human body, accompanied with brisk rubbing with the naked hands, it causes an active and energetic electro-magnetic action to be set up in the parts to which it is applied.

The wonderful potency of this peculiar form of electro-magnetic force, individual, or animal, magnetism, or whatever it may properly be termed, in curing certain forms of human maladies has been demonstrated beyond the possibility of doubt.

Whether ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is actually charged with electro-magnetic properties infused into it in the process of manufacture, or whether it serves merely as a medium through which electro-magnetic forces are developed by active rubbing and which are, through it, transmitted or applied to the parts operated upon, we are not yet quite prepared to say, but of one thing we are certain, viz: That the combined use of ELECTRO-MAGNETINE with active rubbing is much more efficient in a curative way than either of these agencies employed separately.

The free application of the ELECTRO-MAGNETINE to Swollen Joints, accompanied with vigorous rubbing with the bare hands, sets up in the affected parts such an active electro-magnetic action as to greatly promote the circulation of the blood through the swollen parts and thereby hasten absorption and consequent reduction of swelling, stiffness, soreness and pain.

IMPORTANCE OF THOROUGH RUBBING. Too much stress cannot be laid upon the importance of thorough and vigorous rubbing of the affected parts after the application of the ELECTRO-MAGNETINE. In fact, rubbing kept up until the parts are quite dry is the key to the success of the treatment.

Should know that ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is quite as effective in a curative way when applied to horses and cattle suffering from Sprains, Bruises, Lameness, Swollen or Stiffened Joints and kindred affections, as when applied to human flesh. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicines, throughout the United States and Canada, at 50 cents, or, sent post-paid by the manufacturer on receipt of this price in postage stamps or postal order.

thorough course of treatment above directed should be applied two or three times a day.

WEAK BACKS MADE STRONG. By a somewhat protracted use of ELECTRO-MAGNETINE, accompanied with thorough rubbing, or massage, weak backs are made strong. Sore Muscles and Lame Backs, whether arising from strains, over-exertion or Rheumatic Conditions of the system, are relieved, as if by magic, by the thorough application of this remedy.

Football and base-ball players are amongst those loudest in their praises of it as giving most prompt relief from Muscle pains, Lameness and Soreness caused by over-exertion and strains.

Especially has ELECTRO-MAGNETINE proven its power to cure Obsolete Cases of Swollen or Enlarged and Stiffened Joints, whether arising from Rheumatic, Gouty or other conditions of the system, which cause inflammation, effusion and consequent enlargement of the joints.

IN ALL CHRONIC OR LINGERING AFFECTIONS. For the cure of which ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is recommended, it should be thoroughly applied two or three times daily, as above directed — omitting thorough rubbing with the bare hands.

OWNERS OF LIVE STOCK. Should know that ELECTRO-MAGNETINE is quite as effective in a curative way when applied to horses and cattle suffering from Sprains, Bruises, Lameness, Swollen or Stiffened Joints and kindred affections, as when applied to human flesh. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicines, throughout the United States and Canada, at 50 cents, or, sent post-paid by the manufacturer on receipt of this price in postage stamps or postal order.

GOOD AUGURY FOR IRELAND.

King Edward's endorsement, in his speech from the throne, of the elimination of landlords in Ireland by providing for land purchase by the tenants, is a promising sign of the times. His Majesty has always been liberal in his politics, and has been generally credited with a kindly feeling toward the Irish people. It is noteworthy that the most radical of the Irish home rulers very seldom said anything of a personal nature about him, even when English radicals were disposed to criticize him with frank brutality. Evidently the Irish leaders did not regard the King in times past as an enemy to any further extent than his titular rank and connection.

Mr. Justin McCarthy and T. P. O'Connor were wont to speak of him in kindly terms when he was Prince of Wales, and they show no trace of bitterness toward him now that he occupies the throne. Some years ago Michael Davitt, when in Oakland, stated in a published interview that Edward was probably the most popular man in England. Davitt said he was a good fellow personally, and expressed the belief that he would sanction a more liberal policy toward Ireland if he had the power.

This was said a little more than a decade ago, and events are verifying the judgment of Mr. Davitt. The King is clearly in favor of eradicating landlordism in Ireland. This can only be done by providing a way for the tenants to purchase their holdings. Considerable has been done in this direction, but a great deal more remains undone. While the anti-rent agitation has resulted in a number of salutary reforms, it has had another effect that has struck a severe blow to Irish prosperity. Trouble with their tenants caused many landlords to turn their estates from tillage to pasturage. Vast areas in the most fertile districts that were once under plow are now given over to cattle and sheep grazing. The evicted tenantry have gone to Australia or Canada or come to the United States. As a consequence the rural towns have, in many instances, suffered loss of business and population.

As one great landlord remarked, "It is easier to market mutton than it is to collect rent." This sentence explains how the fight against rack renting has contributed to the gradual depopulation of Ireland. This condition will be reversed if the government will enable the tenants to buy and subdivide the great estates. An industrious peasantry owning their own homes will be the best assurance of order and prosperity that Ireland can have. The cattle pastures and sheep walks will again be put under tillage, and the ebb of population will be reversed. It is wise statesmanship to bring about such a result, and in this instance justice and humanity are in harmony with political wisdom. It is well that King Edward discerns that the welfare of Ireland vitally concerns the welfare of the British Empire.

THE PLAGUE IN WOODLAND.

We find this interesting paragraph in the Woodland Democrat:

"The Oakland TRIBUNE declares that those who insist that the truth should be known about the plague are knockers against that section of the State about the bay, and especially San Francisco."

Every reader of the TRIBUNE knows how far from the truth this statement is. We reproduce it merely to illustrate the spirit in which the plague question is treated by certain interior journals. This paper has said in numerous occasions that the public was entitled to truthful statements of the facts, and it has frequently condemned the policy of suppression and denial as foolish and mischievous. On the other hand, it has condemned with equal positiveness the sensational and exaggerated statements printed in certain newspapers regarding the existence of plague in San Francisco. We have all along insisted that the situation was neither dangerous nor alarming, and that there was no occasion for particular uneasiness.

But some of our contemporaries have acted as they sought to create a panic. They have whooped up the plague scare much after the fashion of a burrah political campaign. While persistently stating that San Francisco was infected, they dwelt with glee on some satisfaction on the horrors of the maldy and the alleged imminence of its spread to such an extent that the small kernels of fact were completely obscured in a mass of conjectural horrors. The average reader is unobservant of the line of demarcation between statements of actual fact and fanciful conditions drawn in intimate connection therewith. So, an absolutely false and injurious impression was carried abroad, apparently on the authority of newspapers published in the same section of the State as San Francisco.

A plain statement of the facts would not have done harm or created alarm. They are as follows: The few deaths alleged to be due to bubonic plague occurred among the dregs of Chinatown. The victims were generally dissipated, aged and enfeebled orientals suffering from other ailments; the disease has never been prevalent in Chinatown and has never spread outside of it; the bubonic plague has never become virulent in any city having modern sanitary arrangements; the plague never attacks normally healthy and well-nourished Europeans even where it is endemic, as it is in India and China. It is peculiarly a disease of filth and poverty. It has never been known to flourish in a modern civilized community, although imported into Europe hundreds of times during the past fifty years.

If our Woodland contemporary will tell the truth about the plague itself and what has actually occurred in San Francisco, we will forgive its somewhat ill-natured lapse with respect to the TRIBUNE. One fortunate enough to live in Oakland must needs be charitable to another whom fate consigns to Woodland. There are some experiences worse than plague.

EXTRAVAGANCE REBUKED.

The Hon. John Wesley Gaines of Tennessee is a statesman whose tastes run to the severely simple. He is as simple politically as he is socially, and looks upon carpets, pictures and artistic furnishings as corrupting morally and politically. He is the kind of a man that a statesman in a dress coat and corruption in a Wilton carpet. A stylish turnout is sheer inquiry. Mr. Gaines belongs to the corn cob pipe and punchon floor era of American statesmanship, when a coonskin cap was the proper thing in headgear and ginseng was the medium of exchange in the Tennessee Knobs.

To such a man, who naturally regards the transition from ox-teams to Pullman cars as a lamentable decadence, the social amenities at the White House have the complexion of Pompeian orgies. The recent improvements in the President's official residence strike him as being an assault on the liberties and pockets of the American people. He therefore raised his voice in protest, for the Hon. John Wesley Gaines is a particular friend to the liberties and pockets of the American people. Save assisting at the lynching of a "nigger" nothing gives him so much satisfaction as to thrust his tongue between the people's rights and the advance of any unprincipled invader.

In inveighing against the extravagance of fitting up the White House Mr. Gaines rose to his greatest height. He got up on both hind legs. He berated the degenerate representatives of the people who spent the public money on such extravagances and imitations of the effete royalty of the old world as porcelain bath tubs, damask table cloths, silver spoons and lace curtains. Down in Tennessee, where the Hon. John Wesley hails from, a rag carpet is good enough for anybody, and what is good enough for a white man in Tennessee is good enough for a President in Washington. Down there a remnant of a bedquilt answers for a window curtain, and the nearest creek furnishes all the requirements for bathing. The rebuke Mr. Gaines administered to his recent colleagues will long be remembered as one of the finest things of its kind ever heard in Washington. Nothing has created such a sensation at the national capital since Martin of Texas blew out the gas.

OLNEY IN EAST OAKLAND.

The reception accorded Warren Olney by the voters of East Oakland last night gave conclusive evidence of the high appreciation in which the Republican nominee for Mayor is held. It is but another proof that Mr. Olney possesses without reservation the confidence and esteem of the thoughtful elements of the community. The conviction is growing that he is the right man to place at the head of the city government. Mr. Olney spoke with his customary candor and directness. His hearers evinced their hearty sympathy with his views and his candidacy in a manner that left no room for mistake. The certainty of Mr. Olney's election grows, and it is an assurance that should give universal satisfaction.

It is something of a joke on our friends in "South California" that while they are smudging to keep their orange trees from freezing the people of Cloverdale in Sonoma county are holding a citrus fair. It will now be in order for one of the cheerful larks south of Tehachapi to allege that the oranges exhibited at Cloverdale were bought in Riverside.

A man in Pottsville has had the cavity in his bulldog's tooth filled with gold. It is a pity that there is not some way to fill that man's head with healthy brains. A man whose only claim to public notice is that he filled a worthless dog's tooth with gold is a man whose brain cavity ought to be exhibited as something that nature abhors—a vacuum.

THE JONGULI MAID.

A little maid sat in a jonguli tree,
Singing alone, in a low love-tone;
And the wind swept by with a wistful

For he longed to stay
With the maid all day;
But he knew,
As he blew,
It was true,
The dew
Would never, never dry
If the wind should die;
So he hurried away where the rosebuds grew,
And while to the land of the rose went he,
Singing alone in a low love-tone,
The little maid sat in a jonguli tree,
The wind swept back to the jonguli tree
At the close of the day.
In the twilight gray,
But a sweet little maid had stolen
away.
And whether she's flown
Will never be known
Till the rose,
As it blows,
Shall disclose
All it knows
Of the maid so fair
With the sunset hair,
And the sad wind comes, and sighs, and goes,
And dreams of the day when he blew so free.
When, singing alone in a low love-tone,
A little maid sat in a jonguli tree.
—Arthur Macy in St. Nicholas.

ONLY A SUGGESTION.

But It Has Proven of Interest and Value to Thousands.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be aluminous or flesh forming food, like eggs, beefsteak and cereals; in other words, the kind of food that makes flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bills of fare.

But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and underweight; the digestive organs do not completely digest the flesh forming beefsteak and eggs and similar whole-some food.

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs. If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain natural peptones and diastase, which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to regain its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh-forming food, meat, eggs and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit, as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most successful and the most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, nervous dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES HOLD MEETING.

The Street Committee of the City Council held a short meeting last evening, and passed upon several petitions and resolutions.

The petition of the Piedmont Paving Company to macadamize Lester avenue was favorably recommended to the parent body.

The petition of W. W. Childs to grade Twenty-seventh street, from Grove street to Telegraph avenue, was recommended.

The petition to sewer Alcatraz avenue was laid over till the next meeting.

The petition of the Oakland Paving Company to sidewalk Elm street, between Edwards street and Hawthorne avenue, was favorably recommended.

The protest of James McElroy and others against the blighting of Seventh street, from Washington to Clay, was recommended to be sustained.

The resolution of intention to grade Fortieth street, from Piedmont avenue to the western boundary line of the city, was laid over till the next meeting of the Council.

ORDINANCE AND JUDICIARY.

At the meeting of the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee of the City Council, held last evening, the ordinance introduced by Wilson last Monday, providing for the incineration of garbage within 500 feet of any dwelling house, and within the district bounded by Thirty-sixth and Thirty-second streets, Broadway and the bay was, upon motion of Wilson, sent back to the City Council without recommendation, without discussion.

The ordinance accepting the bequest of Bushrod W. James to the city of the property known as Bushrod Park was recommended for passage to print.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT.

There was only one member of the Public Improvement Committee of the City Council present at the meeting of the ordinance committee last evening. That member was Councilman Fitzgerald, and he referred the following two petitions which were before the committee, to the Fire Warden to report Monday evening to the Council:

From J. A. Kaellin to erect a corrugated iron building on the side of the city, between Washington and Clay streets.

From Dean and Humphrey to erect an addition to their shop at 518 Thirteenth street.

M'GUIRE MAY BE DISMISSED.

RUMOR THAT RAILROAD WILL DROP THE ENGINEER FROM PAY-ROLL.

It is rumored that Engineer McGuire of the Stockton Flyer, which crashed into the rear of the Owl train and caused the disastrous wreck at Byron last December, will be dismissed from the Southern Pacific Company's employ.

The managers of the company, it is said, hold that McGuire was alone responsible for the wreck, although he was exonerated by the coroner's jury. Many of the railroad employees say that Conductor Dolan of the wreck was also to blame for the wreck, but this view, it is said, is not held by the Southern Pacific managers and Dolan has been regularly employed ever since the investigation.

Up to noon today no order dismissing McGuire had been received at the West Oakland yards, but the rumor caused considerable discussion among the engineers. In case the rumor is correct, some action will probably be taken by the engineers with a view to having McGuire reinstated. McGuire states that he has received no word from the company and that he expects soon to return to work.

PUT IN CLAIM TO THE COUNCIL.

Although Steve Norman, in an open meeting of the City Council, made a bargain to make borings at the foot of Adeline street and to charge nothing for his services if he did not find hard pan, he had a bill for $113 before the Auditing and Finance Committee of the City Council last evening.

When the claim was read last evening, Wilson called attention to the foregoing fact, and also to the fact that Norman had found nothing but blue mud in his borings.

"Norman stated publicly," declared Wilson, "that he knew he could find a bed of clay at five feet, and promised that, if he didn't, he would charge nothing for his services. He goes there and finds a mud hole. Still he puts in a bill of $113 for his own work. If my word was not worth $13, I would consider that it wasn't worth much."

Upon Wilson's motion the claim was recommended to be indefinitely postponed. Norman was one of the protestants against the garbage crematory in the Second ward, and when the objection was raised that there was no foundation for the building at the foot of Adeline street, he agreed to make the borings, stating that he knew every part of the city. By the terms of the agreement, if he struck hard pan, he was to charge a dollar a foot; otherwise, he was to charge nothing.

John Rapp & Son and the Bottlers' Union Agree.

On Monday last the differences of the bottlers' association of San Francisco, the Beer Bottlers' Union, and John Rapp & Son, San Francisco distributors of Rainier beer, were amicably settled, and the boycott, which existed for some months past, was declared off.

This action greatly relieves the minds of Messrs. Kirchner & Mante, agents for Alameda and Contra Costa counties for this celebrated beer, who, while they conducted a strictly union establishment, were somewhat affected by the boycott.

San Franciscans visiting this side of the bay can in future drink Rainier beer with the satisfaction of knowing that it is a doubly unionized beverage.

TWICE DIVORCED IN A YEAR.

CONDUCTOR WARE AND WIFE ARE FREED FROM MATRIMONIAL BONDS.

For the second time within little more than a year Frank E. Ware, "the handsome conductor in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company," and his pretty young wife, May A. Ware, have had their marital bonds dissolved. Judge Melvin today granted the husband a decree of divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty. No opposition was offered by the wife.

The Wares were married the first time in 1894. Their marital troubles were first given publicity through a divorce action begun by the wife in July, 1901. Two weeks prior to that time Mary A. Drake had sued her husband, Thomas M. Drake, a brakeman, who had been working on the same train crew with Conductor Ware, for a divorce, alleging that he had transferred his affections to Mrs. Ware.

In her complaint Mrs. Ware alleged that her husband did not provide her with sufficient spending money and that he had struck her three times during their married life. She obtained a divorce on the ground of cruelty in August.

A month later she and her husband were re-married in Portland, Or.

After their return to Oakland the Wares lived together several months, then another separation took place. Ware alleged that his wife was continually abusing him and picking quarrels with him. He also complained that she was seldom home to prepare his meals for him when he returned from work.

The Drakes were reconciled about a month after the Wares were re-married, and the divorce proceedings were dismissed.

PRISON QUESTION IN SENATE.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 20.—The report of the Committee on Prisons and Reformatories of the Senate showing up the cruelty practiced in the State penitentiaries at San Quentin and Folsom in the use of the strait-jacket, was read in the Senate this morning. It recommended the appointment to investigate the matters in question.

Senator Leavitt said that he did not think that a special committee should be appointed. The work should be done by the committee whose report was under consideration.

Senator Tyrrell said that the cruelty which had been discovered in the prisons, warranted the belief that the management of those places was defective and some person ought to be held accountable for it.

Senator Belshaw was of the opinion that the investigation should be carried on by the committee on Prisons and Reformatories.

Senator Wolfe said that the matter should be inquired into by the Prison Directors and that they should act in accordance with the discovery.

Senator Devlin, who is a member of the Board of Prison Directors, spoke on behalf of the directors and wanted the investigation placed in the hands of the Governor.

Senator Nelson said that the people of the State demanded the removal of Warden Wilkinson. He remarked that the latter had acknowledged that prisoners could get all the opium they wanted if they have the money. The different officers of the institution, he said, are not on good terms. In closing his address, he scored the Prison Directors, who, he said, were not doing their duty.

Senator Curtin was opposed to Devlin's plan of leaving the question to solution by the Governor.

A pertinent question was asked of Senator Devlin by Senator Ralston, who wanted to know why Warden Wilkinson was not removed by the Prison Directors if the fact were true that traffic in opium was going on in Folsom. The question was answered in an indirect manner by Devlin, who said that he had always maintained that the opium traffic could be stamped out. Senator Ralston, in referring to an alleged admission made by Warden Wilkinson that he is not able to control the meals served the prisoners, said that the latter should be removed from office.

The most sensational part of the debate came when Senator Caldwell offered a resolution proposing to lay the whole matter over until next Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock, in order to give the Assembly a chance to file impeachment charges against any officer of any prison of the State.

Upon motion of Senator Ralston, further consideration of the subject was postponed until next Wednesday afternoon.

The Assembly committee, appointed to continue the prison investigation, had not yet adopted a method of procedure. The feeling among the members is that an additional investigation during the short time remaining before the close of the session, will not be productive of results. The committee will visit San Quentin and Folsom in order to recommend legislation intending to correct existing abuses. Chairman Camp says the situation is one requiring drastic measures and that the committee will be prepared to handle the pending problem without gloves.

SHORT AND SWEET.

A Quick Food Cure Quickly Told. Some have the knack of telling a long story in a few words. Such is the case with a Plymouth, Illinois, lady who writes: "Here are a few lines about myself and how I was cured by Grape-Nuts food."

"For over a year I was almost prostrated with what two of our best doctors called catarrh of the bowels. Everything I ate seemed to hurt me, so my husband, having heard of the pre-digested food Grape-Nuts, purchased a package and had me try it."

"I can truthfully say that one package did me more good than anything else I had tried. So I have continued the use of it ever since."

"I quit medicine and used Grape-Nuts and it has made me sound and well and I would gladly recommend it to others."

"You may use my name." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason.

KILLED BY LOCAL TRAIN.

LABORER MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH WHILE ON HIS WAY TO WORK.

John Sheehan, a lumberman, in attempting to cross in front of the Niles local train this morning, was struck by the locomotive and instantly killed.

The accident occurred shortly before 7 o'clock this morning at the foot of Harrison street, while Sheehan was on his way to the yards of the Humboldt Lumber Company, First and Alice streets, where he was employed.

The deceased, who was 55 years old, lived with his wife and family of grown children at 152 Sixth street, San Francisco. He was a member of the local Lumberman's Union.

Sheehan crossed the bay this morning on his way to work and alighted from the local at the foot of Broadway. He proceeded to walk the rest of the distance to his place of employment.

From what can be learned by the authorities, Sheehan saw the Niles local approaching, but evidently thinking that he had time to cross the track in front of the train, made the attempt. He miscalculated the speed of the train, however, and before he could cross the rails, was struck by the locomotive.

The unfortunate man was hurled about fifty feet through the air and when witnesses reached the body life was extinct. The head was badly crushed and the right arm broken above the elbow. There were also numerous cuts and bruises.

Coroner Mehrmann has taken charge of the remains, and has notified the family of the dead man. The inquest has not been set.

HURLED MANY FEET BY TRAIN.

TWO WAYFARERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH NEAR SOBRANTE.

James Wilson and Chris Olsen, pedestrian wayfarers, had a narrow escape from death this morning. While walking toward Oakland on the railroad tracks near Sobrante, they were struck by the eastbound Sacramento train. Both men were hurled many feet, being rendered unconscious by the shock, but each escaped without having any bones broken.

To avoid a freight train that was approaching behind them, the men walked across to another track. They did not notice that the passenger train was approaching and before they had time to save themselves they were struck by the flyer.

When picked up the men were unconscious, but they had nearly recovered from their injuries by the time they arrived at the Receiving Hospital in this city. They were treated for a number of minor bruises and lacerations.

The men stated that they had been seeking work in Nevada, but unsuccessfully, and they were walking to Oakland when the accident occurred.

BURGLAR CAUGHT WHILE OPERATING.

Fred Allen, a dairy wagon driver, was captured shortly after 7:30 o'clock last evening in the act of climbing into an upper window at the residence of Mrs. C. L. Maxwell, 1264 Fourth avenue.

The porch climber was caught by G. E. Kelly, a guest at the Maxwell residence, and held until the patrol wagon with Captain of Police W. J. Peterson and T. J. Flynn arrived. He was then taken to the City Prison, but no charge has been placed against him.

WOULD ADMINISTER HUSBAND'S ESTATE

ENGLAND WANTS RED SEA PORTS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Russian reports that the British government is threatening to seize several Red Sea ports are not confirmed from any official sources here, says a dispatch from London to the Tribune. The King's speech revealed the existence of important negotiations with the Turkish government respecting frontiers in that quarter, and there is evidence that the ministers have been seriously disturbed by Turkish intrigues and neglect to fulfill obligations for the control of portions of the coast. It is not clear whether Russian aggression or the middle-eastern activity of Germany is dreaded, but it is certain that officials here have been more deeply interested in the Red Sea question than in the revival of the Balkan agitation. And its approaches are watched with jealous and anxious eyes, especially when Russian torpedo boats have been making experimental runs through the Dardanelles. A Russian coaling station on the way to India would be dangerously placed.

WANT TO CHANGE SYSTEM.

VIENNA, Feb. 20.—The Polish leader, Dacynski, has complained in the Reichsrath of the action of the United States postoffice authorities in not issuing money orders in Austrian currency. He said that this was a serious matter. Many thousand Polish laborers in the United States, who were unable to understand the postoffice regulations, were compelled to apply to bankers for drafts at great expense. Herr Dacynski asked the Minister of Finance to endeavor to persuade the American authorities to change the present system.

The second charge of grand larceny against Sam Pickett, the theatrical promoter, was dismissed today because it contained a clerical error in the date of the first charge. Pickett is charged with stealing money deposited with him by employees to whom he promised fancy salaries.

Warren Olney Answers Examiner's Charge at a Meeting in the Seventh Ward.

THE INSPIRATION

"It looks as if the inspiration for these attacks comes from the two great corporations that are supplying Oakland and San Francisco with water. They don't want the people of Oakland to know how easy it is for us to get our water there and they want to head off and prevent us, if possible. In case we attempt to avail ourselves of this natural supply of water that belongs to us. If these two corporations are

"In a morning paper there was published this morning what purports to be my address to the jury on opening the trial of the case, stating what I hoped to prove as Mr. Beard's attorney. Mr. Beard had a ranch of two hundred acres and he claimed that two-thirds of it dammed up the extent of $80,000 if the water should be turned out of Alameda creek. Mr. J. C. Martin was his attorney in the case, but Mr. Martin got sick and when the case came up for trial he asked me to take his place and try the case for him. I did not open the case to the court and jury, explaining to them what the case was about and what we expected to prove. I stated that we expected to prove that Mr. Beard would suffer tremendous loss in case the Spring Valley Water Company succeeded in turning out the water from what I was Mr. Beard's lawyer, and what was I there for? Was it not to make out as good a case as I could for my client? As a matter of fact, Professor Hilgard and Professor Wickson, and Mr. George F. Allardt, an engineer of the city, and Mr. E. J. Smith, an expert engineer of this city, and many others, testified that Mr. Beard's orchard was not injured and could not be injured by turning out the water from Alameda creek, and the jury, instead of giving us the $80,000 we claimed, gave us $15,000 and the water was turned out in the Spring Valley Water Company contended it should be. We did not take an appeal from that decision, but submitted to it, and Mr. Beard got his money, and Mr. Olney got his fee. This case was tried, I think, in 1891. Since that time there has been continuous dry years, with very small rainfall, and the Spring Valley Water Company has turned out all of the water of Alameda creek that it could, and what is the result? Six years have passed away, and the orchards of Mr. Beard have been undoubtedly damaged in stopping the flow of this large and beautiful creek across his property.

B. C. Cuvellier, who is a candidate to be returned to the City Council, said:

"I pledge you that if you elect Warren Olney and eight honest Councilmen, we will have a municipal water works. It takes eight votes in the Council to secure it. If Warren Olney is not elected Mayor, then I don't want to be returned to the City Council."

New York Merchants Enter Vigorous Protest Against Bill.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The Merchants' Association of New York, has sent a letter to Representative Grosvenor, chairman of the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries of the House, expressing the Association's opposition to the ship subsidy bill. The letter says in part:

"These views were communicated to you when the bill was sent from the Senate to the House, but we have not been favored with any reply, nor has any answer otherwise been made to our argument, which we believe is conclusive."

"This association believes in a subsidy to aid in the development of our ship-building industry, for reasons that have been fully set forth, and which is the only legitimate purpose that can be urged."

"The bill as reported back from the Senate will not accomplish it, but retard it. It is estimated that it will make a grant of $12,000,000 to $20,000,000 annually from the public treasury. Such a vast deposit of country funds should not be the subject of rush legislation. The advocates of the measure will insure an enormous responsibility before the country, particularly if ample time for debate and an expression of public opinion through the press be not allowed. In the short time at the disposal of the present Congress no opportunity is given for adequate discussion of the subject upon the floor of the House, and there is no public interest that will suffer through a delay of legislation until a full opportunity is given for a general appreciation of the terms of the bill."

"This association will continue to oppose the bill and will widely disseminate its arguments against it, which will be all the stronger if it is tacitly admitted that the measure cannot withstand an ample discussion in open session."

QUAY TRUE TO HIS PLEDGE.

Treaty might be a meritorious measure, the statehood bill was equally so and should be voted upon at once.

Senator Burton's speech was drawn out by some criticisms of the declaration of the Republican caucus. Senator Quay made complaint of the publication, and Senator Hoar said the caucus discussions were not for the benefit of the country. Senator Burton only briefly to the caucus and then made an argument of an hour and a half's duration in favor of the admission of the three proposed States.

Mr. Burton was generally congratulated upon the conclusion of his remarks. Mr. Dubois of Idaho followed with a speech in which criticism of the treaty and of what he characterized as the summary action of the Republican caucus. He complained that the caucus had tried to force a vote on the Senate of a measure that had not been considered at all, and said this could not be done. He added that the attention which had been given to the treaty had shown it to be full of defects and these were sufficient to justify the demand for a thorough investigation. When he concluded Senator Morgan continued his remarks in opposition to the treaty in his present shape.

The most interesting event of the day developed before the beginning of the routine proceedings, when Senator Quay arose to a question of privilege. He sent to the desk and had read an article from a New York paper this morning, accusing him of violating a pledge which the paper stated he had made to the Republican caucus Monday to support the treaty to the exclusion of every other subject. He said such was not the case, but that, on the contrary, he had protested to the last in the caucus of any action looking to the displacement of the statehood bill. He called on other Senators to testify to this effect, and several did so, among them Senator Foraker, who said he was quite sure that Senator Lodge said that he had not heard him make any such remark. Senator Nelson expressed the opinion that a pledge was at least implied.

Senator Hoar thought that the proceedings of the caucus should not be revealed, not even in an executive session. He called on other Senators to express their opinion that there should be a committee on publication and having taken the floor for that purpose, went on with his statehood speech.

Highwaymen who Held Up a Car are Captured.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 20.—The police have captured the two highwaymen, who on Wednesday night held up and robbed the passengers of an inter-urban electric car bound for Pasadena. With the identification this afternoon of the two men by the conductor and motorman of the robbed car and the identification of a gold watch pawned by one of the suspected robbers, there appears to be little doubt that the right men have been put behind the bars.

Shortly after noon today, Conductor Dayhoff and Motorman Corbin, who were in charge of the car, called at the police station and positively identified the suspected highwaymen. The watch pawned by Burke was also identified by its owner, Door. It corresponds with his description, not only as to the numbers of the works and case, but also to the missing toggle joint of the chain, which was broken off when the timepiece was snatched by the robbers.

CABINET MEETS AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Secretary Cortelyou attended his first Cabinet meeting today as the head of the new Department of Commerce and Labor. He was given a cordial welcome by both the President and the other members of the Cabinet, and he was assigned the seat at the foot of the Cabinet that had been reserved for him.

Secretary Moody brought to the attention of the Cabinet the subject of recommendation of war vessels now building. He submitted a report of the matter from Admiral Bowles, and was authorized to make public the report, together with a letter which he himself had sent to the President on the subject. The report and letter will be published simultaneously in a few days.

Secretary Wilson informed the Cabinet that the appearance of the foot and mouth disease had been reported in Northwestern Mexico by the British Consul located at Pototsi and that the department had sent agents into Mexico to investigate the matter.

VICTIMS OF TROLLEY WRECK RECOVERING.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 20.—The victims of yesterday's collision between a trolley car and a Lackawanna train at the Clifton avenue crossing who are in the hospitals, were all reported to be doing well today with three exceptions. Those whose condition is not favorable are:

Peter Brady, motorman; Oscar Beckliffe, engineer of the train, and Miss Jennie McLelland. The house surgeon said today that Brady's death might occur at any time, although there was still a possible chance of his recovery. The public prosecutor and county physician are conducting separate investigations into the cause of the disaster and they will submit the results to the Grand Jury. A charge of manslaughter has been preferred against Conductor Gould of the trolley car. He has been placed under $2500 bail.

SHOT TWO MEN.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—While attempting to serve a writ today in the furniture store of Phalen & Bennett, Constable Patterson shot and fatally wounded Albert Hicks and probably fatally wounded H. S. Griswold. The constable then ran from the store and escaped arrest. The men were employees.

ENSLIGN TO BE TRIED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Secretary Moody has ordered the trial by court martial of Ward K. Wortman, the Ensign in charge of the 8-inch turret of the Massachusetts, when the recent explosion occurred, on that vessel, which resulted in the death of the entire gun crew, nine in number. This is a reversal of the recommendation of the Court of Inquiry.

England Taking Points From the United States Navy.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—When the debate on the address in reply to King Edward's speech was resumed today in the House of Commons, Sir William Alln, who is largely interested in shipbuilding, moved an adjournment to the address, expressing regret at the fact that the speech made no reference to the inefficiency of the British Navy.

Sir William vehemently attacked the Admiralty's policy in regard to marine engine boilers, and declared that all the ships fitted with Belleville boilers were unreliable. Mr. Arnold-Forster, Secretary of the Admiralty had discontinued the use of the "statements" of Sir William, said the Admiralty had discontinued the use of the Belleville boiler, was now testing a new type of cylindrical boiler, and following the lead of the United States had adopted the McAlister boiler.

As to armament and armor, he continued, the latest British battleship, the New Zealand, and the latest British cruiser, the Duke of Edinburgh, would be without parallel in the world. On the subject of submarine torpedo boats, the Secretary of the Admiralty informed the House that as the result of experiments with five purchased submarine vessels, the British Admiralty had produced a submarine boat of wholly British design, which was a great improvement on the originals.

Sir William Alln then withdrew his motion.

Says Harriman Could Take our Water Front.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 20.—Senator Leavitt this afternoon characterized Salvage's bills relating to the State granting the right of way to railroads over swamp, overflowed and other public lands, as pieces of vicious legislation.

"The real story of these bills," he said, "has only come out in the last few days. It has been said that these bills refer to Humboldt. My understanding is that they cover tide lands and refer to several other places in this State and particularly to my own county."

"If these bills become law, it will enable Harriman, by simply getting the permission of the Secretary of War to gobble up the whole of the Oakland water front not now controlled by him."

The House bills on the same subject, which passed last night, have been substituted in the Senate.

POPE'S JUBILEE A LARGE AFFAIR.

he proceeded with evident pleasure to peruse the almost innumerable telegrams, letters and addresses of congratulations, which have reached the Vatican from all parts of the world.

The Hall of the Beautification, above the portico of St. Peter's, where the Pontiff held his jubilee reception, presented a brilliant scene. It was beautifully hung with antique brocades and illuminated by thousands of electric lights and wax candles. The boxes lining the long, narrow hall were filled to their capacity with members of the Roman aristocracy, diplomats, women with black veils, men in evening dress and monks and sisters in varying garb. Here and there groups of papal guards in bright uniforms lent color to the whole. Notable among the diplomats was Count Almador, head of the special mission sent to represent the King of Spain at the jubilee.

The struggle to get into the hall was terrific. People were swept off their feet and women were overcome, but no one was really injured. The babel of tongues raised in protest, testified to the worldwide character of the gathering. Among the Americans present were Bishop Maurice Burke of St. Joseph, and Edward Dunne of Dallas, Texas; Fathers S. F. McDonnell and Hugh O'Gara McShane of Chicago, and Thomas O'Gara of Wilmington, Ill.; Mrs. and Miss Choate and Cyrus Johnson.

There was a long and tedious wait before the ceremony commenced and the auditorium was growing restless when suddenly a great roar of "Long live Leo" and "Long live the Pope-King" announced the arrival of the Pontiff. His Holiness was borne in the Sedia Gestatoria on the shoulders of eight men habited in red baccate. The Pope himself wore gorgeous robes and had the triple crown on his head. He bestowed his benediction right and left as he passed through the cheering concourse, whose enthusiasm was so great and whose desire to touch the hem of the Pope's gown was so intense that the presence of guards seemed really necessary for his protection.

In a procession, surrounded by such a brilliant escort of prelates, aristocracy and guards, Pope Leo always appears at his best. His feebleness and bent form are hidden and the public sees only the venerable patriarch with cameo-like features and kindly smile.

When the Pope advanced to the throne, the Paezi family (that of the Pontiff) stood on its right and Count Almador on its left.

Cardinal Ferrari, on behalf of a pilgrimage from Lombardy, presented an address to the Pope, who thanked the pilgrims and gave them his benediction. Subsequently the presentation of gifts occurred, including the gold thair, which cost $25,000, the gold medal and the symbolic keys. After bestowing the Apostolic blessing the Pope returned to his apartments amid the enthusiastic plaudits of the multitude.

WIFE DESERTS HUSBAND.

When James D. Eckert was released from the City Prison this morning, he went to his home at Sixteenth and Wood streets. He then learned that his pretty young wife had deserted him, after selling all of the household furniture.

Last Monday Mrs. Eckert caused the arrest of her husband on a charge of battery. He was taken into custody by Officer Drew, to whom Mrs. Eckert told tales of cruelty that were supported by the testimony of the neighbors.

In default of bail money the husband was compelled to remain in jail awaiting his trial. His case was called in the Police Court Tuesday, but as the wife failed to appear against him, it was continued for Wednesday. Agent J. D. Eckert failed to press the charge against her husband, and the subpoenaing officer reported that Mrs. Eckert was not to be found.

This morning the wife did not come in court, and so Acting Judge Geary ordered Eckert released from custody.

The police have learned that Mrs. Eckert, after disposing of all the household goods, went to Willows to visit her mother, and then departed for Mendocino county. She left word with the neighbors that she wanted nothing more to do with her husband, because of his ill-treatment of her.

The couple have been married but a short time. Neither is over twenty-one years of age. Mrs. Eckert is very prepossessing.
